

BY THE LAST MAIL.

WASHINGTON, May 19, 1866. The Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau in the State of Virginia has been directed to adjourn the freedmen's court until further orders.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 15, 1866. By a fire which occurred at North Royalton, Vt., on the 14th, the house of Mr. Burbank was destroyed, and himself, daughter, and another young lady perished in the flames.

NASHVILLE, May 17, 1866. John Porterfield, formerly a banker, and an old resident of this city, has been arrested and lodged in the penitentiary. It is rumored that his arrest is in consequence of implication with conspirators in Canada some time previous to the death of President Lincoln.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1866. It is understood that Chief Justice Chase has consented to preside over a Court at Richmond for the trial of Jeff. Davis on condition that the President will issue a proclamation, which is said to be already prepared, abrogating martial law so far as the United States District Court of Virginia, is concerned, which the President is perfectly willing to do.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 14, 1866. Within the past three or four days, a very material change in the treatment of Jefferson Davis has been introduced, under the direction of Major General Miles, acting no doubt under instructions from Washington.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 15, 1866. It is understood that the Post Surgeon, in compliance with recent instructions from the President has made an official report of the health of ex-President Jefferson Davis, in which it is thought that his physical condition is not mentioned very favorably.

WASHINGTON, May 12, 1866. The President has appointed Colonel Walter B. Seales, Collector of Customs for Chicago, to get up the five cent piece, which is soon to be issued. It will cost about $600,000.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1866. The President signed the bill amendatory of the Habeas Corpus act, which is intended to protect Union officers and soldiers from prosecutions for acts done during the late war in obedience to military orders from their superiors.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1866. The proceedings of the Senate were not particularly interesting. The veto message of the Colorado bill was received, but the Senate adjourned without its being read.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1866. The Consul at Halifax, under date of May 7, writes to the Department of State that the cholera has entirely disappeared from the Quarantine station, and that within the last week no case has occurred, either in the city or its vicinity.

LOUISVILLE, May 15, 1866. In the case of Colonel Jacques, of Illinois, whose trial, on an indictment for murder, has been for some days in progress, the jury, this morning, returned a verdict of not guilty, without leaving their seats.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15, 1866. Advice from Red River are very gloomy. All the river cotton lands are under water. The cotton reports from all the Southwest are gloomy.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15, 1866. The delegates to the Episcopal Convention, which meets on Wednesday, are arriving. The people of Texas are contributing to the family of Albert Sydney Johnston, who are in want in California.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15, 1866. Cotton is lower; sales 900 bales; low middlings 22@23 cents. To-day's receipts, 1,242 bales. Mayor Monroe was inaugurated with interesting ceremonies.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15, 1866. The French troops are concentrating in Northern Mexico. Dr. Guinn has been released from Fort Jackson.

MOBILE, May 16, 1866. The lightning struck the City House, this afternoon, burning five hundred bales of cotton.

NEW YORK, May 14. The officers of the steamship City of Paris report that the cholera broke out on the steamer Helocia between Liverpool and Queenstown, and she put back to Liverpool.

THE WHEAT CROP.—In all the counties which we have visited, looks very promising, and we believe there is a greater breadth of land devoted to it there than usual.—Athens (Ga.) Watchman.

The Masonic fraternity of St. Louis, Missouri, have resolved to commence the work of erecting a grand temple in that city, at a cost of not less than one hundred thousand dollars.

The Palmetto National says that the adoption of the proposed amendment to the West Virginia constitution, will disfranchise and drive from that State twenty thousand men, whose labor and capital are needed.

The editor of the Southern Georgian, who has just returned from a somewhat extensive tour through the State, gives it as his opinion that the cotton crop will be much below an average.

There were seven deaths by cholera in Cincinnati last week.

One death from cholera occurred on the 13th on the hospital ship Falcon, at New York.

Old Bull, instead of being a corpse, is playing his violin at St. Petersburg.

Ex-Senator D. L. Yulee has been elected President of the Florida Railroad.

The new soldiers' home at Chicago has been completed at a cost of over $30,000.

The citizens of Lexington, Kentucky, recently donated $8,000, in grain, to the destitute people of Alabama.

The value of the fresh fish sold annually at the various French seaports is estimated at £1,400,000.

THE work will be comprised in One Large Royal Octavo Volume of nearly Eight Hundred Pages, including Twenty-four Steel Portraits of Prominent Confederate Leaders; and will contain a full and authentic account of the rise and progress of the late Southern Confederacy, the Campaigns, Battles, Incidents and Adventures of the most gigantic struggle of the world's history. It will be neatly printed on good paper, from new type and furnished to subscribers.

In Substantial Cloth Binding (Imitation of Morocco).....$5.00 In Plain Leather, Library Style, (Sheep) 6 00 In Extra Half Calf Binding.....8.00 PAYABLE ON DELIVERY.

SOLD ONLY BY SUBSCRIPTION. Those ordering the work will not be obliged to take it unless it corresponds with the description in every particular.

The work will be delivered in a few weeks, or as soon as ready. ROBT. WILSON, AGENT. 212 King St. Charleston, S. C. Post Office Box, 500.

A CARD FROM THE AUTHOR.

CAUTION.—Agents and the public are warned against an attempt of C. B. RICHARDSON, Publisher, to thrust upon the public certain annals of the war, gathered from the four corners of the newspapers and arranged by me as pioneers of an original and elaborate work.

He boldly appropriates to these stale productions, the title of "Standard Southern History," which he says completes the author's history of "The Lost Cause." Such an outrage upon the fruits of my labors and the confidence of the public, I leave to the judgment and resentment of the reading public. EDWARD A. POLLARD.

The Publishers take pleasure in saying that "The Lost Cause," by E. A. Pollard, is the only Standard and Official Southern History published. E. B. TREAT & CO., Publishers, May 24—18—4t New York.
